

Marie-Anne Dujarier is a French sociologist.

She had been working at the Sorbonne Nouvelle and at the École Polytechnique. She is now full professor at the University Paris Cité. She is in charge of the Master of Clinical Sociology and Psychosociology. She is a member of the Laboratory of Social and Political Change (LCSP) where she leads the Clinical research team.

She holds a degree in history, a Master in Work Psychology and another one in Sociology of Organizations (with M. Crozier). She earned her P.H.D in the University Denis Diderot (Paris, 2004) and her authorization to supervise research (HDR) at the University of Paris-Ouest Nanterre in 2012.

Marie-Anne Dujarier is on the Editorial Board of five journals (Work Organisation, Labour and Globalisation, Clinical Sociology Review, Bifurcation/s, Travailler, Ergologia) and member of the editorial board for two collections of books : “Travail et activité humaine” (Octarès) and “Clinique et changement social” (Harmattan). She is a regular reviewer for French and international Journals.

Major research projects :

- Survey on Financial Deregulation in a public bank
- Work in mass service organizations (Public Hospital and private restaurant chain).
- Putting consumer to work.
- Impact of management by performance on working conditions.
 - Sociology of managers – career path, salary, gender, activity, etc. and their social roles.
- Transformations of work in the so-called « platform economy » marketplaces.
- Social meaning of the category of thought and practice "travail".
- Socio-psychic changes induced by the capitalocene on work.

Main articles in English :

- « Clinical Sociology of Activity: a Practical Theory : The Case of Subjectivation in the Capitalocene », Clinical sociology Review, to be published.
- "How Work as a Category of Thought Has Been Disrupted in Neoliberal Capitalist Societies", TripleC volume 21 (2), 2023.
- « Vertical division of labour : A sociology of work of the remote organisers", Work Organisation, Labour and Globalisation, 2019, p. 7-19.
- "Up to the financial elites, or Out to the menial world : Figuring out companies as commodities : a key to stay in the M&A sector", avec V. Boussard, in Finance At Work. Boussard (dir.), Routledge, 2017, p. 29-41.
- "The activity of the consumer : strengthening, transforming or contesting capitalism ?", The Sociological Quarterly, Volume 56, Issue 3, 2015, p.460-471.
- « The three sociological types of consumer work », Journal of Consumer Culture, April 8 2014, p. 1-17.
- "Performance-based management and quality of work : an empirical assessment", avec Falzon P., Nascimento A., Gaudart C., Piney C, Germe J.- F. Work : A Journal of Prevention, Assessment and Rehabilitation, IOS Press, Vol 41, 2012, p. 3855-3860.

See all her publications here : <https://hal.science/search/index?q=Dujarier> or : <https://www.researchgate.net/search.Search.html?query=Dujarier&type=publication>

Her books have won 6 awards (Le Monde, Sciences Po., Afcv, Toit Citoyen)

Marie-Anne Dujarier has accepted over a hundred invitations to speak about and discuss her research at French and European seminars and american laboratories. She is regularly invited to institutional hearings on the question of labor & work and their transformations.

She is invited many times a year to present her research and participate in debates with social stakeholders. Marie-Anne Dujarier is also very much involved in the dissemination of scientific information and social debate. Her work, since 2006, has been widely reported in the major French-speaking medias (press, radio broadcasts, documentaries...).